I Can Help.

How? Well, like you, I'm interested in results.

Before you employ my services, we'll agree on exactly what we aim to achieve and by when.

We'll decide what success looks like and we'll gear all the work we do together around that goal (or those goals, depending on how ambitious you're feeling).

We'll agree on a work schedule beforehand, which can be as flexible as you like (an hour a fortnight, an hour a day – you get to choose).

Ready to make stuff happen?

I currently charge £30 ($50) per hour*
... or offer a block of 3 hours paid up-front for £75.

* no charge for initial e-mail exchange to decide consultation goals. Payment due monthly as initially agreed, or up front with the 3-hour block.
