

FEVERED MUTTERINGS

MISADVENTURES IN TRAVEL & STORYTELLING

Rate Sheet for MENTORING

You want...

- to write more effectively and more expressively...
- to tell stories that readers fall in love with...
- to write pitches that get accepted...
- to sell to your audience without them feeling sold to...
- to sound exactly like yourself when you write – the real you that deserves to be heard.

Like you, I'm interested in results. Before you employ my services, we'll agree on exactly what we aim to achieve and by when. We'll decide what success looks like and we'll gear all the work we do together around that goal (or those goals, depending on how ambitious you're feeling). We'll agree on a work schedule beforehand, which can be as flexible as you like (an hour a fortnight, an hour a day – you get to choose).

I currently charge £30 ($50) per hour*

...or offer a block of 3 hours paid up-front for £75.

Note: until Jan 1stst 2014, this rate is reduced and locked to £20 an hour - 1/3rd off normal price. If you employ my services before this date, you will only ever pay this reduced hourly rate for the entirety of our mentoring relationship. (Absolute bargain, 'tis.)

*no charge for initial e-mail exchange to decide mentoring goals. Payment due on completion of hours per month as initially agreed, or up front with the 3-hour block.
